Special Meeting and Study Session of Stockton City Council Proposed Water Rates and Water Treatment

(Stockton, CA) - The Stockton City Council will hold a Special Meeting to conduct an in-depth discussion of City of Stockton Municipal Utilities Department proposed rate structure for City water utility customers and chloramine use for water treatment. The meeting will take place Saturday, March 26, 2016, beginning at 2:00p, at the Bob Hope Theatre, 242 E. Main Street, Stockton.

This meeting is open to the public. All members of the community are encouraged to participate. In addition to presentations and City Council discussion, the meeting will include opportunity for public questions and comments. This Special Meeting is being held to focus specifically on water rates, as the Council will hold a Public Hearing on the proposed rate changes at the regularly scheduled City Council Meeting, Tuesday, March 29, 2016.

Free parking will be available at the Hunter Street parking garage, which is located behind the Theatre at the corner of Hunter and Market Streets. The garage will be open one hour prior to the start of the meeting and will closed one hour after the meeting concludes.

The meeting will be taped and replayed on the City's website, and replayed on
