City Accepting Applications for Committees and Board

(Stockton, CA) - The City of Stockton is currently accepting applications for the Climate Action Plan Advisory Committee, Community Development Committee, Cultural Heritage Board, and Measure W Oversight Committee. To be considered for appointment, those interested must submit an application online. A link to the application is available at www.stocktongov.com/bcvacancies. The City will be accepting applications until Thursday, June 11, 2015, at 5:00 p.m.

The Climate Action Plan Advisory Committee is a 10-member Committee that serves as an advisory body to the City Council and makes recommendations on Climate Action Plan activities within the City of Stockton. There are three (3) vacancies. The term of service is for two (2) years with no term limit, with members meeting once a month.

The Community Development Committee is a seven-member Committee that acts as an advisory body to the City Council, studies Housing Department data to determine recommended ongoing project funding levels; reviews Department of Housing and Urban Development applications; and meets with area residents to analyze activities, needs, and community support for newly designated areas. Seeking to fill three (3) vacancies, as current members' terms expire September 30, 2015. The term of service is for four (4) years with a two-term limit.
