STOCKTON – SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY *Announces New City Librarian/Deputy Director of Community Services

(Stockton, CA) - City of Stockton Community Services Director John Alita announced today the appointment of Suzy Daveluy as the new Deputy Director of Community Services, who in her position, will be the City Librarian for the combined City of Stockton and San Joaquin County Public Library system.

“Ms. Daveluy is currently in charge of youth, programming, outreach and literacy services for the Stockton San Joaquin Library System,” said John Alita, Director of Community Services. “She is widely known in the community and highly respected for her work. I believe she will be an excellent fit for the needs of the Library and for Community Services as a whole. Most importantly, she recognizes that our organization is at a pivotal point in time and she has the energy and the vision to accomplish our goals.”

Ms. Daveluy, who has been with the library for 25 years, holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and Criminal Justice from California State University, Sacramento; a Masters in Library and information Science from San Jose State University, California; and a Juris Doctorate from McGeorge School of Law, Sacramento. She has held numerous positions within the Library, including that of Librarian II, since 2003, where she has been responsible for the supervision of literacy and outreach departments, managing department and grant-related programs and budgets, designing adult and youth literacy programs, professional development of staff, and serving on numerous boards and committees throughout the community to further the mission of increasing literacy in the community.

"I'm so honored to be given this opportunity," said Ms. Daveluy. "As a native Stocktonian who spent many hours of my youth in our city and county libraries, it is exciting to see how far the Library has come. I love to imagine the possibilities of what it can be as we continue to increase access to technology and offer services and programs which truly reflect our community's unique needs."
